

PKT Enterprises'

2017

Management

Employee of the Year

~Nicola Opine~

PKT would like to recognize Nicola by sharing a few outstanding characteristics she exemplifies:

One of the first managers to volunteer to help out in all circumstances

Always open to new ideas and fresh perspective

Completes all tasks expected of her and helps other managers

Seems to always be positive and upbeat

Can count on Nicki to give an honest assessment, provide insight and feedback as to how it could work better

Has a great attitude, which can be seen on a daily basis

Lets those who have done a great job know and encourages those who need more guidance

Gives credit and praises performance where needed

Always available to chat or sort out any troubles

Turns mode from negativity to more of a solution driven conversation

Seeks out ways to be more proficient in her work

Jumps in when there is a problem and finds a way for everybody to be a part of it and solve it

Talks with staff about the importance of teamwork, communicating and working together appropriately

Has taken what used to be the most difficult house in the company and turned it into just one of the other houses

Always one of the first ones to volunteer for everything but still makes sure her work is completed

Always willing to pick up On-Call for her peers or when there has been an opening

Handles situations positively

Uses good judgment in keeping clients at center of her decision making

Goes above and beyond organizing outings for clients

Hard worker, gets things done without being asked

Great manager in all aspects of her job

Nicki is always kicking butt!!

CONGRATULATIONS!
THANK YOU!
